Frances Fragos Townsend currently runs her own independent consulting business. Until recently, she served as the EVP of Corporate Affairs, Chief Compliance Officer and Corporate Secretary at Activision Blizzard. Prior to that, she was Vice Chairman, General Counsel and Chief Administrative Officer at MacAndrews & Forbes, Inc. Before her tenure at MacAndrews, she was a corporate partner with the law firm of Baker Botts, LLP. From 2004 to 2008 Ms. Townsend served as Assistant to President George W. Bush for Homeland Security and Counterterrorism and chaired the Homeland Security Council. She also served as Deputy National Security Advisor for Combatting Terrorism from May 2003 to May 2004. Ms. Townsend spent 13 years at the U.S. Department of Justice under the administrations of multiple US Presidents. Ms. Townsend is a Director on the Board of three public companies: Chubb, Freeport McMoRan and Leonardo DRS and she also serves on multiple private company Boards where she is Chairwoman of one and chairs all the compensation committees. Ms. Townsend is a trustee on the Board of the Hospital for Special Surgery, the Atlantic Council, CSIS, the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum, and the McCain Institute. She also serves on the Board at the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission and the International Republican Institute. She is a member of the Aspen Strategy Group.